Grand Knight's Message

By Joseph L. Tengowski

My Brothers:

I hope that all our brothers and their families had a Joyous and Merry Christmas and I wish them all a Happy and Healthy New Year.

The Christmas Party we had on December 13, 2012 at Niko's Place was well attended and all had a good dinner. I think that we should do this again next year.

Our All American Breakfast with Santa on December 16, 2012 was fairly well attended and was successful.

The officers meeting on Wednesday January 2, 2013 is cancelled. We will have our 3rd Degree business meeting on January 3, 2013 at 7:30 pm in the Parish Hall.

Saturday January 5, 2013 Our Lady Queen of Peace will have a Heritage Mass at 4:00 pm and our 4th Degree Color Corps will be attending. This will be the start of the 100 year celebration.

Sunday January 6, 2013 is our All American Breakfast in the Parish Hall at 8:00 am to noon and the Blood Mobile will also be there.

Sunday January 13, 2013 is our K of C corporate communion at the 10:30 am Mass with coffee and donuts after Mass in the Parish Hall, also the Parish Picnic will take place at 2:00 pm that day.

Thursday January 17, 2013 is our 3rd Degree social meeting at 7:30 pm in the Parish Hall.

Thursday January 24, 2013 is the 4th Degree business meeting at 7:30 pm in the Parish Hall. Coming up in February is the Sweeties dance and tickets will soon be available for sale.

Chaplain's Message

Dear Brother Knights,

God Time ticks away so fast! This is my fourth Christmas with you all. On the threshold of our Centennial Year, we have a lot to thank God; blessed be His Holy Name.

Wish you a Blessed Christmas and A Happy New Year!

May the peace and love of Jesus Christ be with you all!

Father Sebastian

I thank you, Brother Knights for your love and support to me all these years. God bless you all.

As I pen down these few words to wish you all a Blessed Christmas, my heart aches and eyes stay teary at what happened in Newtown, Sandy Hook Elementary School and at other blood sheds around the world. A kind of fear haunts my thoughts and dreams; how is this Christmas going to give us peace?

I share the fears of all the parents, concerning our children who grow seeing violence everywhere: violence in the neighborhood, violence in movies, in video games, in relations and in personal life. Insecurity about life and future devours them up. Frustrated they become, turn to drugs or such things for consolation and peace. They look for someone who can help them to change their way of life. They need light to walk, hope to live and a dream to move on. They want someone who says to them, "I love you" and assures them 'everything is going to be OK'. Could 'I' be that someone they look for?

At this Christmas, you and me have to become once again, a child in their manger just for our children. They need a friend. They need a savior. When they fall, they need someone to hold their hands and raise them up. That is 'you'; that is 'me'. Let us give them a hope and a dream to live on. Today God speaks to them through us. If we choose to remain silent, our children will never hear the voice of God.

Be a Word of God to whom you meet 'Today'.
