Chaplain's Message

By Father Joseph A. Pastick

May, the month of Mary, brings with it the joys of Jesus' Resurrection. For fifty days we celebrate and rejoice the greatest event in human history and look forward with eager expectations to the goal of our entire existence -- our resurrection in glory with all the saints and angels of God.

It is impossible even to imagine our heavenly bliss as we see God "face-to-face." But we have the certain hope that the exaltation and glory of the Risen Jesus will be ours forever and ever. Our trust in God's merciful forgiveness and reliance on God's promises will be realized fully according to our faith -- and according to our living a life of active love of God and our neighbor.

In His awesome gift of his suffering and death (Life) Jesus on the Cross gave us into the care of His Blessed Mother. When we complete our life's journey, Mary will welcome us to all the heavenly court. We have prayed to Her for assistance "now" and "at the hour of our death." Again, you and I cannot really imagine how much Mary loves us and is constantly with us each day. Remember how tender and loving a feeling we had as children toward our heavenly Mother. Renew this devotion each day.

Yours in Christ and Mary,
Fr. Joe Pastick,
Chaplain
